

Jericho

Marc Scibilia

I never meant to fall in love
Who the hell does?
I've built my wall so high-up
Afraid to feel the sun

Broken hearts behind me
Always losing
You lay bare in front of me
I'm in ruins

I hear music
When I look into your eyes
And I surrender
I will fall for you tonight
Like Jericho
Like Jericho

So shake the ground in front of me
And set my world on fire
Love was my enemy
Now it takes me higher

Than any lonely castle could
Or any fortress strong
I know I've lost the battle
When I'm dying in your arms

I hear music
When I look into your eyes
And I surrender
I will fall for you tonight
Like Jericho
Like Jericho
Like Jericho
Like Jericho

Ohh, honey I surrender
Ohh, come on and pull me under
Ohh, honey I surrender
Ohh, come on and pull me under

I hear music
When I look into your eyes
And I surrender
I will fall for you tonight
Like Jericho
Like Jericho
Like Jericho
Like Jericho
