

Barricade Of Love

Marco Borsato

Sympathy, is the concrete of it all
We together, are building a big wall, baby
We're gonna make it our home
We together, shouldn't be alone

I've never felt the need of this before
To feel a home, close up your own door baby
This must be it
To have a place were both of us fit

Oh, this must be Love that I'm feelin'
This must be
My heaven in time
Everything, I'll do for you baby
We're gonna build it from the bottom line ('cause)

Nothing's gonna break baby
Nothing's gonna break down
This barricade of love
We will build it up
Straight to the top
The top of love
Nothing's gonna break baby
Nothing's gonna break down
This barricade of love
'Cause I feel your touch
Need you so much
Nothing's gonna break it down

Life is simple and oh so complete
We've got a home, to rest our feet
Baby, heaven on earth
We've had our bad times
But we know it was worth
To live a life
Based up on love
I know for sure
It will be enough
Oh honey
It looks like a dream
But it's just the way it seems
