

Tonight

Marco Mengoni

All I know's I'm a lucky man, I try to do the best I can so I move trying to make things be all right.
I'm so glad that you're in my life
You fill my heart, you fill my sky
I'm so glad 'cause you make it all right.

And you love me tonight
you love me tonight
you love me
you love me
tonight.

You're are not alone.

All alone on a regent seal I felt the weights crash over me
When we met well, the sun begun to shine
You Know I know i'm a lucky man, I do my best, the best i can for you and you smile and make everything all right.

and you love me tonight
you love me tonight
you love me
you love me tonight.
