

Girl

Maren Morris

Man, this shit's unflattering, all up in my head again
I don't feel myself right now, maybe I should just lay down
If vanity's my vitamin, well, I don't feel the difference
I don't like myself right now, gotta find a way out

What you feel is natural
But I don't wanna feel this anymore
Pick yourself up off the kitchen floor
What you waiting for?

Girl, won't you stop your crying
I know that you're trying
Everything's gonna be okay
Baby girl, don't you hang your head low
Don't you lose your halo
Everyone's gonna be okay
Baby girl

Draw your comparisons, trying to find who's lesser than
I don't wanna wear your crown, there's enough to go around

What you feel is natural
You don't gotta put up with this anymore
Pick yourself up off the kitchen floor
Tell me what you waiting for?

Girl, won't you stop your crying
I know that you're trying
Everything's gonna be okay
Baby girl, don't you hang your head low
Don't you lose your halo
Everyone's gonna be okay
Baby girl

Girl, don't hang your head low
Don't lose your halo, don't lose your halo
Girl, don't hang your head low
Don't lose your halo, oh

Girl, don't you stop your crying
I know that you're trying
Everything's gonna be okay
Baby girl, don't you hang your head low
Don't you lose your halo
Everyone's gonna be okay
Baby girl, won't you stop your crying
I know that you're trying
Everything's gonna be okay
Baby girl, don't you hang your head low
Don't you lose your halo
Everyone's gonna be okay
Baby girl

Everyone's gonna be okay, baby
