

Good Woman

Maren Morris

When you were young
There were some things
You had planned out
A map of your dreams
If some pull through
And if some fall away
I promise to you
This one's gonna stay

I'll sway like a tree
When you need a change
I'll travel the world
Or stay in one place
I'll hold your hand
When the storm's at the door
'Cause you got my back
And I got yours
You've got the love of a good woman
Yeah, you've got the love of a good woman

If you need my arms
To hold you together
They'll be right here
To hold you forever
Sometimes we won't know
The road that we'll face
But we'll get where we're going
Even if we're late

I'll sway like a tree
When you need a change
No one'll speak
The language we make
I'll hold your hand
When the storm's at the door
'Cause you got my back
And I got yours
You've got the love of a good woman
Yeah, you've got the love of a good woman

I'll keep you warm
Beneath the sheets
The weight of the world's Got nothing on me
'Cause you've got the love of a good woman
Yeah, you've got the love of a good woman

I'll sway like a tree
When you need a change
We'll travel the world
Or stay in one place
