

Just Another Thing

Maren Morris

I ought to know better but you know that never stopped me before
Yeah, my wheels just have a way of spinning, always ending back at your door
So add your name to the list
Of all the things I can't seem to kick

You're just another mess, another late night call I shouldn't be making
Just another high, another one night shot I shouldn't be chasing
I got my excuses, no I don't know why I do it but You're just another, just another thing I shouldn't be doing
I shouldn't be doing

Just like smoking, just like drinking, I'm a fool for ever thinking I'm done
Yeah, I always break that promise, if I'm honest it ain't ever just one Or two, when I'm running into you
I'm right back on that road, pushing that first domino

Just another high, another one night shot I shouldn't be chasing
I got my excuses, no I don't know why I do it but
You're just another, just another thing I shouldn't be doing
I shouldn't be doing

Yeah you're just another kiss, another Friday night I shouldn't be wasting Just another "What you doing later on?" I shouldn't be saying
I got my excuses, no I don't know why I do it but
You're just another, just another thing I shouldn't be doing
I shouldn't be doing, shouldn't be doing, shouldn't be doing
