

bulletproof

Mareux

For your life I'll surrender
And with this heart I am bulletproof
Where the fine line meets, I will never Give up, I am missing you
And everything, it does linger
In the air I am missing you
Time will change, there's tomorrow
I hear it in the wind sometimes

What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right

In this life there is no forever
But with this heart I am bulletproof
Where the white light bleeds, touch the embers
Down below, soon I'll be meeting you
And everything will burn brighter
In the sky, I am missing you
Rewind years, I wanna relive tomorrow
To see you in my life sometimes

What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right
What are we doing right now?
We could be doing right
