Mareux

You seem familiar
I've seen you before
You have my attention
I want to see more

I miss the same old ways
Though you left me before
Don't let it distract you
My blood on the wall

Your heart will deceive your eyes
And you try
Understanding
You want to trust yourself
But you can't
And that hurts you

Your heart will deceive your eyes
And you try
Understanding
You want to trust yourself
But you can't
And that hurts you

Your heart will deceive your eyes
And you try
Understanding
You want to trust yourself
But you can't
And that hurts you
