

Within reason and hope
The people you outgrow
For reasons unknown
Never seem to show
The love it takes
And the hearts they break
When one side is wrong
The other plays along

Passion is love
Is a passion for you
Let the body talk
Let the body talk
Keep missing it
Keep missing you
Let the heart want
Let the heart want

In the city
You're missing
I find you somewhere along the way
I tell you to stay

Within reason and hope
The people you outgrow
For reasons unknown
Never seem to show
The love it takes
And the hearts they break
When one side is wrong
The other plays along
