

Hello, San Francisco

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

Hello, San Francisco
Baby, I don't ever wanna die

Yeah, you got me swinging' celery and never makin' any sense

Let's throw our bones away and get happy, babe
'Cause I'm seeing blue again
You're not yourself

So long, Chicago
Junkie
Honey, I don't have the brains to fry

Yeah, you had me talkin', squawkin',
and never makin' any sense

and get new bones, babe Teeth painted green again
I'm not myself

Let's throw our bones away [x8] and get new bones, baby

I'm seeing blue again
I'm not myself [x3]
when I belong to someone else
