

O' What a Nightmare!

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

I can't believe we got warm by a fire fed with my manuscript what a nightmare!
but your hands looked so cold, I was feeling ashamed so I set them aflame with a lighter

and I will be calm while you're blowing your stack my baby does not want me back.

I can't believe we got stuck in this hole this whole party's a bore what a bummer!
when we finally greet earth, when we're on our home turf I'm gonna throw such a beautiful rage-er and I will have fun while you're bein' a drag

my baby does not want me back
and I'm flying around
head over heels
yet somehow...

Fire, fire, everywhere!
what the fuck is going on?

I will be calm while you're blowin' your stack
my baby does not want me back
head over heels...
