

Smile at Me

Margot & the Nuclear So and So's

And I don't want to leave
When you scream at me
And tell me you're used up
That I should turn and walk away
I'll try to make you smile
But you just laughed at me
Through tears of spiteful rage
There are stars over your face tonight

Do you think you'll survive
You're a fool, kid, they'll eat you alive
When you're lonely and come out at night
With those fangs

Jamie we're alone
On the kitchen floor
In a cold and sterile bed
There are stars over your head, my love
As you undress for him
Your knees all trembling
But we just stand and watch
And beat you to your punch

And do you think you'll survive
You're a fool, kid, they'll eat you alive
When you're lonely, they come out at night
With those fangs

I go to bed
With you in my head
Holding on to dead

And do you think you'll survive
You're a fool, kid, they'll eat you alive
When you're all alone, they come out at night
With those fangs
