

In Love With An Angel

Maria Arredondo

I have seen true love
Sent from heaven above
Why then can't I dare
To say how much I care
I don't know you well
Still I lie in your spell
I could give up so much
Just for one little touch

But when I'm here sleeping
When I dream of you
Then I have courage to tell you that

I wanna hold you in my arms
I wanna hold you tonight
You're the sun shining so bright
I fell in love with an angel

I can feel so near
Though I'm far from there
I could hold you so tight
And the not see the light
When it's plain to see
That you smile at me
I still think it's not real
That you never could feel like me

But when I'm here sleeping
When I dream of you
Then I have courage to tell you that

I wanna hold you in my arms
I wanna hold you tonight
You're the sun shining so br /ight
I fell in love with an angel

Once in your life you get a feeling
The angel that you see is meant just for you
But when I'm here sleeping
When I dream of you
Then I have courage to tell you that

I wanna hold you in my arms
I wanna hold you tonight
You're the sun shining so br /ight
I fell in love with an angel
