Mária Čírová

If I look inside
There's no reason for
You to anything hide
I see through your eyes
Everything what's left
There's only truth no lies
If I look inside
Inside your body I
(I) know you've got the same as I

You can run but cannot hide
I will get you I will follow
I will make you free of sorrow

We can be as one
Rise and touch the sun
I can be your everything and you can be all mine
We can be as one
Even under the ground
We can built our word for us
Just you and I

If I look I might
See you on my side
There's no need for any light
We both need for tonight
(just) romantic candlelight
And we'll get our bodies all tied.

You can run but cannot hide
I will get you I will follow
I will make you free of sorrow

We can be as one
We can rise and touch the sun
