Mariah the Scientist

I guess it's better that it's over now
'Cause all the things that you lied to me about
Was just too much for me to swallow down
Now it's takin' over, tryna take me out
I guess it's better if we pretend we're better as friends
I'll try my best to forget your braid up and your Chanel scent
I can't love you if I don't trust you
So, if you fucked, I swore I'll never touch you
But, if it's tough, you know I won't discuss it
'Cause if you love her, I'll just interrupt you so

I can be what you need, maybe more, everything
Maybe you'll come to your senses
I'll use up my minutes

To tell you how I believe you are a rainbow
All the Heaven I need to see
You're my promise everlasting, ah
Where you are, I hope to be, oh

Meet me at Bayside, date night
Late night, never find you in daylight
'Cause, you be touching road in the day time, and
Your boys from back home want that FaceTime
Don't you make me fly to Toronto, and Drive to the West End to show you I want you
I'm gettin' all this snow on my sunroof, but Anytime you ask, I'ma come through, and
You know I hate it that you're convinced
I won't come to your ends
I'm just returnin' a favor (Favor)
Always coming to my defense
Know you hate me, but I still love you
And if it's up to me, there's no discussin' this
If it's up to me, you know I'm cuffin' it (You know I'm cuffin' it)
But when it comes to trust, ain't no rush in it

I can be what you need, maybe more, everything
Maybe you'll come to your senses
I'll use up my minutes

To tell you how I believe you are a rainbow (You are)
All the Heaven I need to see
You're my promise everlasting, ah
Where you are, I hope to be, oh

(All the Heaven I need to see) Mm-mm, mm-mm
(You're my promise everlasting, ah) Mm-mm
(Where you are, I hope to be) Mm-mm
