

Revenge

Mariah the Scientist

He said he loved me
Why does it hurt?
Why does it haunt me? It's gettin' worse (It's gettin' worse)
I can't compete with him, it's so unfair
Want to get even, I want revenge (I want revenge)

Seems like he's runnin' from the truth but he can't hide
What's done in the dark comes to the light
Said that he'd be there for me
Now that nigga's dead to me and I'll be
Wearin' all black when I'm walkin'
Right next to his mother, when I hug his friends
I might even dare to speak
Standin', give a eulogy, oh I'll Tell 'em that in death we'll meet again
Like it ain't your blood that's on my hands
And can't nothin' taste this sweet
You know nothing's as sweet as revenge

It doesn't hurt (It doesn't hurt)
It doesn't haunt me, can't get no worse (Can't get no worse)
He can't compete with me, I'm gonna win (I'm gonna win)
I'm only human, I want revenge

He said he loved me
Why does it hurt?
Why does it haunt me? It's gettin' worse
I can't compete with and it's so unfair
Want to get even, I want revenge
He said he loved me
Why does it hurt?
Why does it haunt me? It's gettin' worse
'Pete with and it's so unfair
Want to get even, I want revenge
He said he loved me
It doesn't hurt
Why does it haunt me?
Can't get no worse
He can't compete with me, I'm gonna win
Want to get even, I want revenge

He said he loved me
Can't get no worse
He can't compete with me, I'm gonna win
Mmm-mm-mm
Mmm-mm-mm
Mmm-hmm-hmm
Mmm-hmm-hmm
Mm-hmm
