

In for the winter now
Snow's almost on the ground
Fallin in a lockdown

None of my friends are here
No family this year
Staring out my window

I didn't know I'd be so lonely
I didn't know
I didn't know

I look out into the night
Icicles on the lights
Dripping down to nothing

I walk up the stairs and see
Lights all up on a tree
And you waiting for me

I didn't know I'd be so cozy
I didn't know
I didn't know

Next year can't come soon enough
I miss everything so much
Til then its just you and me
Curled up watching old TV

I didn't know I'd be so cozy
I didn't know
I didn't know

I didn't know I'd be so cozy
I didn't know
I didn't know
