

I Get Along Without You Very Well

Marianne Faithfull

I get along without you very well
I get along without you very well,
of course, I do Except when soft rains fall and drip from leaves, then I recall The thrill of being sheltered in your arms,
of course, I do

But I get along without you very well I've forgotten you just like I should,
of course, I have Except to hear your name, or someone's laugh that is the same But I've forgotten you just like I should

What a guy, what a fool am I
To think, my breaking heart could kid the moon What's in store?
Should I phone once more?
No, it's best that I stick to my tune
I get along without you very well,
of course, I do Except perhaps in spring but I should never think of spring
For that would surely break my heart in two
