

No Child Of Mine

Marianne Faithfull

You are my child
And how you've grown
But there are things
That you must learn
That every man
Must stand alone
And family
You must disown

Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way -

Don't cry my child
You must know
That every man
I've ever loved
Has been a child
And fatherless
Trust in yourself
That's all that you can trust

Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way -

Go on, find your own way
Go on, find your own way
Go child, find your own way
Go on, find your own way -

I have no time for hate or love
Hey child, you're so full of woe
I have no time for hate or lyin'
Hey Child, you're no child of mine

I have no time for hate or love
Hey child, you're so full of woe
I have no time for hate or lyin'
Hey Child, you're no child of mine
Hey Child, you're no child of mine
Hey Child, you're no child of mine
