Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free

Even have you on my solo
At my thinking, oh, might turned your jazz and all over
Better you have plans for me
Wonder how you'll be a fool if she could see
Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free

Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
That girl does

Even have you on my solo
At my thinking, oh, might turned your jazz and all over
Better you have plans for me
Wonder how you'll be a fool if she could see

Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Give you everything, give you everything
Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Now your words are catching up on me
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
Can't give you everything that girl does for free
