

Dear Friend

Marié Digby

Dear friend I haven't heard from you in ages
I wonder how you're making out
Last time we talked I felt the space growing between us
I didn't think you'd go so far

Tell me how could you just vanish
Without giving me any reasons
What were you thinking
And does this all make sense to you?

It's hard when you don't say anything
When I gave you everything
And still you slip right through my fingers
It's hard when you don't say anything
Is this how you finish things?
Cause to me, this doesn't feel like the end... Dear friend

It's not like me to put my trust in somebody
But to you I gave it all
And if you'd asked me I would soften all your falls
But now it's me who's stumbling

Tell me how could you just vanish
Without giving me any reasons
What were you thinking
I can't make any sense of you

It's hard when you don't say anything
When I gave you everything
And still you slip right through my fingers
It's hard when you don't say anything
Is this how you finish things?
Cause to me, this doesn't feel like the end... Dear friend

Tell me how could you just vanish
Without giving me any reasons
What were you thinking
And does this all make sense to you?

It's hard when you don't say anything
When I gave you everything
Still you slip right through my fingers
It's hard when you don't say anything
Is this how you finish things?
Cause to me, this doesn't feel like the end
Cause to me, this doesn't feel like the end
This doesn't feel like the end
