

Loving You Is Easy

Marié Digby

Darling I have been waiting all of my life
For you
Darkness, I don't need the sun cause you are the light
In my view
There's no such thing as worry or doubt
As long as you are right here dear

My heart it spoke the words that it told
E is that
Loving you is easy
Ohh loving you is easy
Fell for the sky
I should come crashing down
I'll be your shield
I'll keep you safe from harm
Loving you
Cause loving you is easy

Someday the two of us will sit at the edge of the sea
Just you and me.
Holding our memories close counting the shells on the beach.
You are the one that I will always hold
Till the day I grow old.

My heart has spoke
The words that it told me
Is that loving you is easy.
Loving you is easy
Ohh loving you is easy
Fell for the sky
Should come crashing down
I'll be your shield
I'll keep you safe from harm

Darling I have been waiting all of my life
For you
