Love Speaks Louder Than Words

Marie Osmond

Love speaks louder than words
Every time our eyes meet
I can hear my heart beat
It's like no sound that I've ever heard
Love speaks louder than words

There's at least a thousand lines
They've been used a million times
But none of them could ever say
What I feel when you look my way

Love speaks louder than words
Every time our eyes meet
I can hear my heart beat
It's like no sound that I've ever heard
Love speaks louder than words

I don't ever have to try to guess
If you love me
'Cause I know it's yes
I don't believe that you could ever say
What I'm seeing written on your face

Love speaks louder than words
Every time our eyes meet
I can hear my heart beat
It's like no sound that I've ever heard
Love speaks louder than words

It's not that I don't like to hear
When you whisper in my ear
Your tender voice
I can't refuse
I love the things you do

Love speaks louder than words
Every time our eyes meet
I can hear my heart beat
It's like no sound that I've ever heard
Love speaks louder than words
