

Song to the Moon

Marie Osmond

Silvery moon in the velvet sky
Your light shines bright in the heavens
Over the world, wandering
Gazing into our dwellings
Over the world, wandering
Gazing into human dwellings

Oh, once in awhile, stay with me
Tell me where is my love
Oh, once in awhile, stay with me
Tell me where is my love

Tell him, oh, tell him, silver moon
That in my arms, I enfold him
Tell him he dreams to entangle me
Even if only for a moment
Tell him in dreams to think of me
Even if just for a moment

Oh, once in awhile, stay with me
Tell me where is my love
Oh, once in awhile, stay with me
Tell me where is my love

Dear moon, shine for him
Oh, shine for him
