

Burgundy

Marika Hackman

If you want to hold me, I'll want you more
Than anyone ever wanted anyone before
If you want to hold me, I'll hold you back
If you want to hold me, hold me down

I'll need a little room to sway
You hold me anyway
All my life
Well I can't take you on my own

I always hoped
I always hoped it would be, be easy
Half of what you are and half of me so

Hold me closer but now where do I go to find you?
Now where do I go to find you?
Now where do I go to find you, now?

I see your faceless stars
Shine in my dream tonight
I see your loving eyes
And it is starting to all make sense
I am a lion
A tiger sleeping under my skin
A tiger sleeping under your skin
Not afraid to fight

I see your faceless stars
Shine in my dream tonight
I see your loving eyes
We will watch a little sunrise
