

i'm not where you are

Marika Hackman

I'd rather be asleep than interact with me
I don't get what you see
'Cause lately I've been trying to find
The point in human contact
I get bored like that

I'm not where you are
I'm not where you are

I don't know what to do
You think I'm better than you
But maybe I do too
'Cause baby, there's a line between
Your faith and what I had in mind
I'm so bored of that

I'm not where you are
I'm not where you are

I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)

I'm not where you are
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
I gave it all away for the lowest play
I think I lost my mind
(I'm not where you are)
