

Believe

Marilyn Manson

in a favor of a good intention never mind the destination

(future lay) your sure destruction back and down is not an option that's what you've said, you gotta believe in me, i am everything i'm the final step you take toward insanity

i'm the only one still after your reality
you gotta believe in me

You dug a hole and fell inside your perfect world was compromised you still don't know who, what the hell you are you're only worried about the balance on your credit card

that's what you've said,
i'm the final step you take towards insanity
i'm the only one still after your reality

TV sells hypocrisy it's feeding off your apathy about the surface all as well but (dig a bed) and go to hell just put a bullet in my head I've already been left for dead just shut your mouth and close your eyes Reality's a lie

that's what you've said,
i'm the final step you take toward insanity
i'm the only one still after your reality
