

Meet Me In Purgatory

Marilyn Manson

Give me your secrets
I want a confession
Nothing good stays good for long
How much worse than me
Can you be?

If they cast me out
I want you to come with me
We can be one
We can be one
In endless oblivion

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

You tell me you love me
Your mouth is a guillotine
I'll take your hand
And I'll let you take my head

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

If they cast me out
I want you to come with me
We can be one
We can be one
In endless oblivion

We can be one
We can be one
In endless oblivion

We can be one
We can be one
In endless oblivion

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

Are you gonna pray for me
When I'm in purgatory
Or just stare through the stained glass at my body lying there?

Will you stay by my side
Or will you stand in their way?

What will you do
When they come to murder me?

Will you stay by my side
Or will you stand in their way?
What will you do
When they come to murder me?
