

Anticipated

Mario

Your lips all I wanna taste
Grip my hands round your waist
Girl, I'll never leave you lonely
I'm the only one that you will need
I know you don't need a whole
But I'll give you anything you want
You shine like me it's clear
So blame all this love you get on me, yea

I swear every night
It's a thing I prayed for
Who would ever know that
God would send me an angel
Oh, father wise and mighty
You know that I would like it

I could not believe that you would be so sexy
Imma little a different but only you get me
Baby, we both belong together
Waited for you forever, yea

Anticipated your love
Baby, we gone be the loudest
Anticipated your love
So long I've waited for this
Anticipated your love
Girl, you ain't hear the sirens?
Seems like forever that I've
Waited for you all my life

We talk shit when we get lit lit
Big Trip's when we wanna spend it
God forbid you rip my heart out
I ain't never been this all out, yea

I swear every night
That it's a thing I prayed for
Who would ever know that
God would send me an angel
Oh, father wise and mighty
You know that I would like it

I could not believe that you would be so sexy
Imma little a different but at least you get me
We both belong together
Waited for you forever

Anticipated your love
Baby, we gone be the loudest
Anticipated your love
So long I've waited for this
Anticipated your love
Girl, you ain't hear the sirens?
Seems like forever that I've
Waited for you all my life

Yeah, yeah

It's you, it's you
She get what I mean
I feel that she got a hold on me (Hold on me)
And the whine down, it is all I need (All I need)
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, yeah

Anticipated your love
Baby, we gone be the loudest
Anticipated your love
So long I've waited for this
Anticipated your love
Girl, you ain't hear the sirens?
Seems like forever that I've
Waited for you all my life

Anticipated your love
