

Too Many Options

Mario

Too many options ain't good for you
Too many options ain't good for you
But I'm good for you, baby
I got room for you, baby

Too many options ain't good for you
But I'm good for you, baby
I got room for you, baby
I got moves for you, baby
Make them move for you, maybe
Too many options ain't good for you
Too many options ain't good for you

Too many options can be fun
Yeah I know 'cause I got a few of 'em
But if you had to pick just one
Trust me girl, the competition, there ain't none
But I'm not tryna lead you on
Unless you just want more time for me
But you just want that energy
I can make plans for your pleasure
But you gotta make a decision

Too many options ain't good for you
But I'm good for you, baby
I got room for you, baby
I got moves for you, baby
Make them move for you, maybe
Too many options ain't good for you
Too many options ain't good for you
But I'm good for you, baby
I got room for you, baby

I got moves for you, baby
Make them move for you, maybe
Too many options, yeah

I got options, I got options for ya
Sour diesel or Gorilla Glue
Take your panties off, put my lips on it
You ain't gotta tell me what to do, baby
I see you wanted more than just company
You just want that energy
I wanna make plans for your pleasure
Yeah girl, but you gotta make a decision

Too many options ain't good for you
You don't play hard well, just give in
You see the wave I'm on
And I know you're drippin'
You see they blow me up
They got they minds made up
Ignored another call
'Cause your body wants it all
Too many options, too many options
Got too many options, girl

Too many options ain't good for you
But I'm good for you, baby
I got room for you, baby
I got moves for you, baby
I got moves for you, baby
Too many options ain't good for you
Too many options ain't good for you
