

Fallen

Marion Aunor

Lock of the lips
To seal the night
That was the moment
Everything felt right the
Warmth of your breath
The hands touch my neck
And I have fallen
Yes I have fallen for you

Eyes wide awake
Till the break of dawn
Stuck inside a moment
When nothing could go wrong when
The earth was slow and still
But the time seemed to run faster
And then what happened next
Was the kiss that I could not forget

So this is what it feels like
Not to be alone
This is what it feels like
To know you've got someone
I can feel it
In every inch of my soul
Now I'm knowing do I am never gonna let go
Never, no

Danced to the beat
Of a different drum
No more turning back
Insides come undone the
Warmth of your breath
The hands touch my neck
And I have fallen
Yes I have fallen for you

So this is what it feels like
Not to be alone
This is what it feels like
To know you've got someone
I can feel it
In every inch of my soul
Now I'm knowing do I am never gonna let go
Never, no

Arm feel empty as you go
I miss you more than you will ever know
So don't you go, you go, you go, you go, you go
Don't you go

So this is what it feels like
Not to be alone
In every inch of my soul

Never, no

Next time can't come soon enough,
Love and I need to see you now
Next time can't come soon enough,
Love and I need to see you now
Next time can't come soon enough,
Love and I need to see you now...
