

My Love!

Mark Ambor

My home, my love, my skin, my blood
All those at once you are
When days get rough, you'll be enough
You'll always have my heart

The fight I gotta settle
Be an angel or a rebel
But it's late and I should probably head back home
That warm air when it's freezing
The bandage to the bleeding
The only place that I have always known

Oh, I never want to leave
You're the best part of me, my love
Oh, the high that always kills my lows

My home, my love, my skin, my blood
All those at once you are
When days get rough, you'll be enough
You'll always have my heart

I hate to say I miss you
'Cause that means that I'm not with you
You're the tears inside these tissues in my room
I flashback to your kitchen
Talking shit and your mom's listening
Then she joins in 'cause it's pretty fun to do

Oh, I never want to leave
You're the best part of me, my love
Oh, the high that always kills my lows

My home, my love, my skin, my blood
All those at once you are
When days get rough, you'll be enough
You'll always have my heart

Oh, I never want to leave
You're the best part of me, my love
Oh, a slice of heaven in my bones

My home, my love, my skin, my blood
All those at once you are
When days get rough, you'll be enough
You'll always have my heart

Oh, you'll always have my heart
You'll always have my heart
