

Cover me in your mystery
I'm hooked and it's building in me
Tension's breaking
All my expectations
Or hold off from the excitement
Of throwing a line 'cause I'll bite it
Then get twisted
Thinking it'd be different
Love her, find another take it back
Then baby, it's too late (Hey, hey, hey, hey)

Baggage on my shoulders
And I'm only getting older
So dramatic
But let me keep regretting 'cause it makes me feel alive
I know that I'm impatient
Wild heart and I can't change it
Tryna balance
Riding waves inside my mind

Drown me in my emotions
Then leave me out in the open
I deserve it
All that constant hurting
I've been tryna run away from all the blame
I realize I was wrong, then make the same mistake
Broken but I know that I will fall in love someday (Hey, hey, hey, hey)

Baggage on my shoulders
And I'm only getting older
So dramatic
But let me keep regretting 'cause it makes me feel alive
I know that I'm impatient
Wild heart and I can't change it
Tryna balance
Riding waves inside my mind

Crashing but I'm treading and I'll figure out
Think about it too much and it's bringing me down
Maybe this is something that I shouldn't really talk about (Hey, hey, hey, hey)

Baggage on my shoulders
And I'm only getting older
So dramatic
But let me keep regretting 'cause it makes me feel alive
I know that I'm impatient
Wild heart and I can't change it
Tryna balance
Riding waves inside my mind
