

Dancing In Heaven

Mark Battles

It's been a month and seven days
Since the last time I saw your face
I'm spending all of my time trying to make any sense
The thought of you and your embrace
The memories just keep replaying
Over and over and I'll never get to the end

I don't want to see you go
And the truth is that I wish I didn't know
That I won't see you again
But I know this ain't the end 'cause

I live and pray you spend your days
Dancing in heaven
Maybe one day I'll see your face
We'll dance together

Hey you, I know you're strong enough
But cherish it 'cause forever's never long enough
We used to dream that everything will belong to us
Make misery a melody now it's a song to us
Yeah, they say there's beauty in the pain
But I've seen a lot of things that I truly can't explain
So even when I dance it's usually in the rain
Until I see your face again I'll never be the same

I live and pray you spend your days
Dancing in heaven
Maybe one day I'll see your face
We'll dance together

I live and pray you spend your days
Dancing in heaven
Maybe one day I'll see your face
We'll dance together
