

Gretsky

Mark Battles

Can I ask you a question? Have you ever been in love?
I saw you in that dress looking sexy than a
I ain't the party type you ain't gon catch me in the club
My heart is ice cold like Gretsky
I got a question. Have you ever been in love?
I saw you in that dress looking sexy than a
I ain't the party type you ain't gon catch me in the club
My heart is ice cold like Gretsky with a puck

Just a squirrel in your world, will you let me get a nut?
Drop make that pussy pop like pepsi in a cup
Uncle Sam going ham tryin to stress me for a buck
Yung One a shy nigga he just chillin in the cut
Quavo and Offset coolin fillin up a blunt
Yachty laughin celebrating had a million dollar month
It could be 4th and 10 and I still ain't gotta punt
I'm the shit like constipation but I still ain't gotta grunt
Live my life on the edge now I feel like I ain't jumped 10 away then Coach K tryna meet me for a brunch
Must respect me as a man don't ever treat me like a chump
I've been working so damn hard ain't seen my tv in a month
But that booty so damn baby tell me what you want
I done fought all the fighters, I wrote all the writers
My homies in the slum selling coke just for diapers
Jumped right off the stage and kill a nigga in a cypher
If she ain't the wifey type I most likely won't like her
She like the dude from Ghost Rider head is so fire
I used to be a biker had the pegs on both tires
Now I lead the X games for my old pryers

Have you ever been in love?
I saw you in that dress looking sexier than fuck
Have you ever been in love?
I saw you in that dress looking sexy than a
You won't catch me in the club, will you let me get a hug?
Have you ever been in love?
I saw you in that dress looking sexy than a
