

Imagine

Mark Battles

Can you imagine life with no more rain?
No more dark times and no more pain?
Can you imagine life with no more hurting?
Wake up every day and shit is perfect
Can you picture life with no more struggle?
No more overtime or working doubles
And there wouldn't be no racism
Cause nobody was born with hate in them
Can we have a time with no more evil?
No more lies to divide the people
And our leaders really strive to lead you
And when you die they got a spot to keep you
Can you imagine life with no more rain?
No more dark times and no more pain?
Can you imagine life with no more hurting?
Wake up every day and shit is perfect
I think we deserve it, quick call the nurses
My heart is bursting, I'm tired of hurting
The sky is burning, my mind is searching
Let's find a purpose, at time's I'm nervous
It's so disturbing, just hope it's working
Fell close to worthless
Can you imagine life with no more rain?
No more dark times and no more pain?
Can you imagine life with no more hurting?
Wake up every day and shit is perfect
Don't know if we deserve it
Imagine
