Sayin' my name, yeah, you ain't never ever said a name before
And I'm givin' you brain like I ain't never really gotta think no more
I'm ahead of my time, I stay in my posse, you can't ignore
My frequency high, I'm changin' your life, I'm pushin' you forw ard
Four, four, four on the dot of course Promise you I'ma stay humble, but I gotta cop me a Porsche It's people that's doin' you dirty and still ain't gon' show no remorse
I'm learning these lessons, I'm peepin' the blessings apart fro m the course
Open your eyes, say that shit with your chest
Ain't no holdin' on to drama, I promise I gotta progress Hope you not in the same spot that you was when I got up and le ft
It's so much shit that I can say, but I know it would leave you depressed

I never meant to hurt you, it just wasn't workin' out
I know it's self doubt, had to find my way out
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh (A way out)
Oh, oh, oh, oh (Yeah, ayy)
Oh, oh, oh (Ayy)

Said I live a life you would die for, but you don't have a clue what you strive for Keep the fame, it's a childish game, damn near gave my life for this high score
Play it cool, we can vibe more, and keep it steady, you can dri ve more Just top me first, I cop the purse 'cause I'm good with trays l ike Ja, of course
See, everything could be true, but don't say the things that we do Ayy, play your role 'cause them other hoes want exactly what yo u might lose
That's me, right?
Runnin' through shit like streetlights Lovers don't lie, no cheap price
Hundred for a hundred, never was a runner, bitch, I'm a gunner
Been goin' in and I'm finna go dumber
Wrestle for the money, I'm a stone-cold stunter Highway stummer, lil' hardhead fucker
Came up rough, but the flow so butter, yeah

I never meant to hurt you, it just wasn't workin' out (Uh-uh)

I know it's self doubt (Yup), had to find my way out (A way out
)
Oh, oh, oh, oh (Yeah)
Oh, oh, oh (Ayy, ayy, ayy)
Oh, oh, oh, oh (If I ask you what we waitin' on) Oh, oh, oh (I'm just hopin' you don't take it wrong) (Ayy, if I ask you what we waitin' on I'm just hopin' you don't take it wrong, straight up)
