

Quick Question

Mark Battles

Hey, you, come here

Quick question, can I talk to you?

We should try a few things you don't often do
Seem to always cause a scene when you walking through
Heard your ex in the league, but I'm balling too
Let a shooter shoot, we can cop some cuter boots
I ain't bad, turn a red flag Cooper blue
Like I hoop for Duke, shoot the three two for two
Need a queen that want me for me, you for you

Let a hooper hoop, we can go coupe for coupe
Twin Benzes that look alike, Jeff and Mook
We got geometry, you can check the proof
I mean chemistry, can I mess with you?
May I joke a bit? Lot of offers, no commit
But I don't really sweat that shit 'til I show the print
Then you won't forget, Baccarat, know the scent
I remember every nickel used to go to rent
I would park across the street so I ain't show the dent
In my car, every star had a slow ascent
Would have made it to the league if I could grow an inch
So I made my own league and I ain't on the bench, shit
Quick question, can we talk some more?
I can help you with your form and we all can score
Red flags no no's just like Voldemort
But I can turn them flags blue and we can ball some more

What you cautious for? Shorty, can I talk to you?
We should try a few things you don't often do
Seem to always cause a scene when you walking through
Heard your ex in the league, but I'm balling too
Let a shooter shoot, we can cop some cuter boots
I ain't bad, turn a red flag Cooper blue
Like I hoop for Duke, shoot the three two for two
Need a queen that want me for me, you for you
Let a shooter shoot
Yeah
Let a shooter shoot
Yeah
That's right

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Let a shooter shoot
