

Road Game

Mark Battles

Defeat or victory can't go both ways (nah nah)
And the crowd gon' boo you tryna throw shade (yeah yeah)
But you can't make moves being at home safe (nah nah)
So for right now, every game is a road game (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I go I'm gonna make it my home
Checking in what's the point when I came for the throne
Not everybody meant to like it and they'll hate it I know
'Cause every game is a road game I'll make it alone

I look better in my away colors
We gon' be straight 'cause the front and back have the same number
The one that turns a home crowd to some hate-mongers
They need to play a perfect game when you don't make blunders
Tell me would you rather be feared or respected
You can't say that you are him until the cheers all get deadened
In your presence, making all of your peers feel rejected
The person they love to hate it's the weirdest profession
I'll gladly take it I do better with no leisure days
My comfort zone became a place I have to lead astray
Sin city's been exposing me to evil ways
I'm on my Sean Payton no can be a saint

Defeat or victory can't go both ways (nah nah)
And the crowd gon' boo you tryna throw shade (yeah yeah)
But you can't make moves being at home safe (nah nah)
So for right now, every game is a road game (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I go I'm gonna make it my home
Checking in what's the point when I came for the throne
Not everybody meant to like it and they'll hate it I know
'Cause every game is a road game I'll make it alone

I'm more tapped in when they are booing me
If they're rooting for me I'm less and less how a trooper be
What's a dog they can a neuter that sounds super weak
Student to the game don't mention me with no truancy
You see there's Monday morning quarterbacks and Josh Allens'
One helps the other pay their bills 'cause they don't got talent
What I considered easy for them is their top challenge
This kind of lifestyle requires being not balanced
So I cannot be the man that a family needs
A kid and wife's a different life and that would damper me
I'm the reason many Indians they can't be chiefs
Because my home's Arrowhead like I'm Andy Reid

Defeat or victory can't go both ways (nah nah)
And the crowd gon' boo you tryna throw shade (yeah yeah)
But you can't make moves being at home safe (nah nah)
So for right now, every game is a road game (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I go I'm gonna make it my home
Checking in what's the point when I came for the throne
Not everybody meant to like it and they'll hate it I know
'Cause every game is a road game I'll make it alone

When it's a road game, it can be a cold world and a cold game
So flame, lit the spark like some propane
Climbed up out the gutter did this shit with no shame, okay
Haha, you was the man for a minute

But it didn't last 'cause your plan had a limit
Used to ask God for a chance just to get it
Every word I meant it bro, never been a gimmick though
Uhh, I can show you how to get it
MTV cribs let me show you how I'm livin'
That's so raven 'cause it started with a vision
And it ain't really nothing just a man on a mission (I did it)

Defeat or victory can't go both ways (nah nah)
And the crowd gon' boo you tryna throw shade (yeah yeah)
But you can't make moves being at home safe (nah nah)
So for right now, every game is a road game (yeah yeah)
Anywhere I go I'm gonna make it my home
Checking in what's the point when I came for the throne
Not everybody meant to like it and they'll hate it I know
'Cause every game is a road game I'll make it alone
