

Waves

Mark Battles

I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
Waves waves waves waves waves waves
Saying hello in the morning I wake up and
Wave wave wave wave wave wave
You got some loving for me well then send it my
Way way way way way way
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
Waves waves waves waves waves waves
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in

All of our feelings they're numbing them
I'm trying to feel every one of them
Rising with every new day no it isn't just some of them
Swim in the tides
All of the lows come with unlimited highs
All of these songs
Still everyday it's just something I didn't describe
I'm bad at sitting still
What you got is hitting still
I'm trying to sip and spill
I'm trying to clean all the mess
Shine like your kitchen will
Been trying to work on my ways
I've just been all in a daze
Tired of wasting my days
I need it all in my face

I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
Waves waves waves waves waves waves
Saying hello in the morning I wake up and
Wave wave wave wave wave wave
You got some loving for me well then send it my
Way way way way way way
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
Waves waves waves waves waves waves
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in

Coming in waves
I hustle for days
Is it worth what it takes
Get my struggle appraised
Like Money Mitch
I'm in love with the game
Well at least I was
Shit ain't been the same
It's back and forth
Like a bad divorce
Can't just floor this shit
That's how you crash the Porsche
Slow and steady wins the race
Unless you forced to swim in lakes
Life will drown you get in shape
Find some love split the steak
Make so kids get a mate
Taking trips on Christmas break
Nothing promised anyway
Life is short treat it like a sport

And go hard on every court like you Michael Jordan
Ignore the bullshit and keep fighting for it
I say some real shit and they like me for it
Some days end up sunny others might be pouring
But I'm grateful for it all feeling right this morning

Waves waves waves waves waves waves
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
Waves waves waves waves waves waves
Saying hello in the morning I wake up and
Wave wave wave wave wave wave
You got some loving for me well then send it my
Way way way way way way
I feel it all when it's coming and coming in
