

Without You

Mark Battles

I'm nothing without you
So lost and so blind
I'm going out of my mind
For I'm nothing without you

I think you only lose if you ain't learned from it
Every lesson is a blessing that you earned from it
God, give me a signal, I know my turn comin'
When shit goin' good, I know that hurt comin'
Life got a balance, that's why it's worth something
My bro shot my bro, he took the earth from him
I had nowhere to go but God'll work wonders
When you gamble with life it's known to take the under Don't let it take you under
I'm nothing without you
Won't let them make me slumber
You might get sick to your stomach, you knew what I made this summer
It just upgrade my hunger, suffer so I'm tougher
Trust her, still can't love her
No kisses, save the pucker
Still rainclouds, maybe thunder
Rest easy, baby brother
You always said I would do it, I promise not to fumble
But this life shit is crazy, the problems keep on coming
And I won't cry like a baby, I gotta keep on drummin'
Until the fat lady singin', the music better rumble
Want me to talk about ballin?
Bitch, I ain't Brian Gumbel
My nephew got killed for nothing, it made me wanna crush him
An eye for an eye, or leave us all stumbling (Facts)
A legend said I'm a legend, that was very humbling
But that nigga went platinum and I'm out here struggling
To get a million streams, oh god, these silly dreams
I can't complain, I hit that stage and know I'm still a king
Mike Jackson, Billie Jean, you not my lover baby
I won't control you, I don't know you out them covers, baby
So be classy and don't ask me 'bout that other lady
Break out the shackles, I'mma battles, guess my mother made me
When you seen what I seen ain't no in between
Not happy being on the team, I'm tryna get the rings
Niggas try to backdoor you just like they slipping screens
So be careful who you trust and you ain't you for nothin'
Yes baby, every suit is custom (I'm nothing without you) and them blues is b usted
I heard that we the new discussion, Vasi crew or nothing

Yeah
So lost and so blind
3's up
I'm going out of my mind
For I'm nothing without you
