

My Love

Mark Erelli

My love I see the shadows fill your eyes
Your smile is but a thinly veiled disguise
Could it be you've grown dissatisfied
With me

My love I know a heart's not black and white
But I can tell when something isn't right
Could it be you've lost your appetite
For me

I've heard that love can slip away without a warning
Just like the way that you made up your mind
But everything looks different in the morning
So darlin' think it over one more time

My love the skies would turn from grey to blue
If I could only change your point of view
Can't you see what losing you would do
To me

I've heard that love can slip away without a warning
Just like the way that you made up your mind
But when I saw the way you looked at me this morning
I thought I'd gotten through to you this time

My love have all my fears come true at last
So slow the hours and minutes seem to pass
Could it be you're never coming back
