Field Song

Mark Lanegan

Let's walk down to the water There's hyacinth in bloom I spend my days lovin' you I left these fields because I never knew

To be a horse, to be a train I wouldn't have the heart And next to the tracks You find an apple cart

Maybe we'll stay at home And be together No more to move alone Together, no more to move alone

See the water, it's mixed with light For you, I've been shaken Regarding the fields Humbly mistaken
