

She's Not For You

Mark Lanegan

Pay no mind to her
She only wants to play
But she's not for you
She's not for you
And I'm the only one
Who would let her act this way
But she's not for you
She's not for you
So, she told you
She found heaven in your eyes
Well, I think it's only fair to warn you
That sometimes she lies
But it's your heart
Can't tell you what to do
She's not for you
She's not for you
She just looks
For greener pastures, now and then
And when she grows tired
She knows old faithful
Will just take her back again
Leave her here
I'm used to feeling blue
She's not for you
Oh, she's not for you
Well, she's not for you
She's not for you
