Mark Lanegan

I'll tell you how I woke up on the line
My sister, I almost saw the light
Look my hands are tied
I'll see you in another hallway
Some other time

Well, I don't understand this big parade
It's a five star decoration day
Look my hands are stained
I was washin' 'em in the water
Well, the water fell away

I'll tell you how I woke up on the line
Sorry for a soul in heaven, passin' by
Look my hands are tied
I will see you in another station
Some other time
