

Upon Doing Something Wrong

Mark Lanegan

Monday's always raining
The fountain overflows
Until I have you again
Take it through the alley
And from the corner down
Until I have you again
Until I have you again

Upon doing something wrong
I am sorry woman
Upon doing something wrong

Sunday's always painful
The mountain tumbles down
Until I have you again
Step lightly through the garden
Watch for a serpent there
Until I have you again
Until I have you again

Upon doing something wrong
I am sorry woman
Upon doing something wrong

Monday's always raining
The fountain overflows
Until I have you again
Taken through the alley
And from the corner down
Until I have you again
Until I have you again

Upon doing something wrong
I am sorry woman
Upon doing something wrong

Monday's always raining
The fountain overflows
