There's gotta be a reason for the pain I'm facing
There's gotta be some meaning in this heart that's breaking
There's gotta be a light just up ahead
There's gotta be strength 'cause I've got none left
And I don't know, how it ends
All I need to know is this

I'm gonna follow my God
I hear Him saying, "Fear not"
Through the storms that rage
My God will make a way
I'm gonna call on His name
For He is mighty to save
My strength, my hope
It's You I'm gonna follow

And I know there is joy even in this struggle
And I know that You are good in times of trouble
I don't need to see what's up ahead
All I need to see is my next step

I'm gonna follow my God
I hear Him saying, "Fear not"
Through the storms that rage
My God will make a way
I'm gonna call on His name
For He is mighty to save
My strength, my hope
It's You I'm gonna follow

Through everything, everything
You're in front of me, front of me
You are all I need, all I need
You are, You are here
Through everything, everything
You're in front of me, front of me
You are all I need, all I need
And it's You that I'm gonna follow

I'm gonna follow my God
I hear Him saying, "Fear not"
Through the storms that rage
My God will make a way
I'm gonna call on His name
For He is mighty to save
My strength, my hope
It's You I'm gonna follow

Through everything, everything
You're in front of me, front of me
You are all I need, all I need
You are, You are here
Through everything, everything
You're in front of me, front of me
You are all I need, all I need
It's You that I'm gonna follow
