

Hope Is Rising

Mark Schultz

Right now your heart is still breaking
Right now you're falling apart
And I know the road that you're facing
Feels like a step in the dark

And it feels hopeless

How long till you feel the healing
How long till it's in the past
When do you ever start feeling
That you can't let go, oh and still know

You're gonna fight, back to life
Gonna breathe again
It's gonna be a climb
Up from the ashes and back on your feet again
That's where you'll find
Hope is rising
Hope is rising

One day you're gonna see clearly
One day your heart's gonna find
The buried beneath all the grieving
The sun has been waiting to shine

And in that moment you're gonna know that

You're gonna fight, back to life
Gonna breathe again
It's gonna be a climb
Up from the ashes and back on your feet again
That's where you'll find
Hope is rising
Hope is rising

Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh
[?] the light is breaking in
Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh-oh
If you just hold on today

You're gonna fight, back to life
Gonna breathe again
It's gonna be a climb
Up from the ashes and back on your feet again
That's where you'll find
Hope is rising
Hope is rising
Hope is rising
Hope is rising
