

It Is Well

Mark Schultz

I can stand when everything's shaking
I can breathe when my heart is breaking
I can rise when everything falls apart

In life, in death, all this lack of rest
There's hope, there's peace holding me

When I'm on my knees
And the storm won't cease
In Your shelter I am still
When my strength is gone
Oh Your cross stands strong
And Your mercy never fails
It is well
It is well

I believe when everyone's doubting
Hear Your voice when everyone's shouting
Your Word reaching through the darkest night

Your hope, your peace holding me

When I'm on my knees
And the storm won't cease
In Your shelter I am still
When my strength is gone
Oh Your cross stands strong
And Your mercy never fails
It is well
It is well

I can stand when everything's shaking
I can breathe when my heart is breaking
I can rise when everything falls apart

When I'm on my knees
And the storm won't cease
In Your shelter I am still
When my strength is gone
Oh Your cross stands strong
And Your mercy never fails
It is well
It is well

I can stand when everything's shaking
I can breathe when my heart is breaking
I believe with everything it is well
I can stand when everything's shaking
I can breathe when my heart is breaking
I believe with everything it is well
