

2 Faces

Mark Tuan

All these emotions you making me feel
You got me tossing and turning for real
I wish you'd just be straight with me
I'm here waiting patiently
Why won't you come stay with me
You left such a vacancy

You got me stuck like a fork in the road
I'm losing all of my sense of control
I was swimming now I'm drowning in, yeah
I was swimming now I'm drowning

Would you stand by and watch me go
Would you sit idle if I broke
Down into pieces
Thought you had love for me
But I was mistaken
You got a mask on
I'm seeing two faces
I'm seeing two faces
I must be mistaken
Won't you ever let me go
Won't you ever let me go
Won't' you ever let me go

Caught my breath when I lost my mind
Looked too deep and I found your eyes
I need you and I want you bad and I swear it
Your body on me close
And I need you to know
That I want you the most
Lost in all this static and madness but
You bring me back home

All these emotions you making me feel
You got me tossing and turning for real
I wish you'd just be straight with me
I'm here waiting patiently
Why won't you come stay with me

You got me stuck like a fork in the road
I'm losing all of my sense of control
I was swimming now I'm drowning in yeah

Would you stand by and watch me go
Would you sit idle if I broke
Down into pieces
Thought you had love for me
But I was mistaken
You got a mask on
I'm seeing two faces
I'm seeing two faces
I must be mistaken
